#211

July 3, 1984

LIBERTERREAN DEADLINE IS: Monday, July 23, 1984

EDITORIAL:

Jackson upstages Reagan by opening a lot of doors in Latin America with his personal diplomacy. But Reagan is so petty, he sits in the White House pouting and won't speak to Jackson at all, much less Castro or the Nicaraguan gov't. In the past, Reagan has said he won't improve relations with Cuba because they're holding American prisoners. Jackson got Castro to release them. Then Reagan said that's not enough, the political prisoners must be released first. Jackson got Castro to release 26 political prisoners. Now the Reagan administration says that won't work to improve relations, it's only a "propaganda victory" (Schultz's words)

Well, they're right. It is a propaganda victory for the Cubans. Handed to them on a silver platter by Reagan. Reagan is begging to talk to Russians for improved relations. But tyrannical Castro who is spreading revolution and trying to take over Latin America, Africa and Asia from his island base in Cuba (according to the U.S. gov't), cannot be a participant in talks for improved relations. In fact, Cuba must remain the object of an economic blockade and a history of CIA plots by the U.S. which is decades old now.

Reagan has also said Cuba must abandon armed support for revolutionary movements in Latin America. Castro has recently supported the Contadora Process for peace in Central America sponsored by Mexico, Colombia and Venezuela (among others), and to which the U.S. gov't also gives lip service while supporting the "Contra" mercenaries in anti-Nicaraguan operations from Honduran bases. I heard a news report yesterday that Honduras has demanded the Contras close their HQ in Honduras. If this means the Hondurans will limit or stop the Contra operations, it is a blow to Reagan's "secret" war against Nicaragua. I hope so.

NOTICE:

Steve Knight, 11905 Winterthur Lane #103, Reston, VA 22091 is reviving the International Subscription Exchange. The ISE is designed to make it easier for hobby members on both sides of the Atlantic to sub to one another's zines by providing a central clearing house for subscriptions requiring conversion of funds into other currencies.

Subscription requests require the zine or zines requested, together with the amount of money or number of issues you want. Include complete mailing information.

For further information, write Steve.

Thanks to Dave Ditter for sending in the cover graphic.

LETTERS:

Jim,

The LIB has got to be the best forum for raw gaming in the Diplomacy hobby. It's refreshing to get away from all the B.S.

--Mike Lee

Dear Jim,

I love LIB and especially enjoy reading some sane, leftist thoughts among Dip's programmed Reaganites.

Marc Peters

I'm glad you enjoy the LIB. That makes me feel about as good as receiving a pretty girl's smile. You should know, though, I'm an anarchist. If a "leftist" administration were in Washington, I'd probably find as many criticisms of them as I do of Reagan's.]

A GOVERNMENT SUPPORTER?
OFCOURSE I AM, BUT NOW
DID YOU EVER GUESS?

You now have until the deadline for LIB #211 to conduct your initial diplomacy. If you don't see an asterisk next to your name, I don't have a record of you paying the $3 game fee. So now is the time to pay it, or straighten me out if my record is incomplete.

1982 IP WINTER

PBEM DIPLOMACY:

I am moderating games of PBEM Diplomacy for users of the ACE BBS. LIB subscribers will pay no more for a PBEM game than for a PBM game in the LIB, except for your long-distance phone charges. The BBS number is: (503) 343-4352.

Since I've taken the LIB BBS off-line, you may also leave messages for me on that BBS. The SYSOP wants all game messages to me to be left on the Diplomacy message file (that's file #6 on the "A" message file directory).

Also, I'm informed the ACEBBS uses 6-character passwords. So when you send me a password, make sure they are only 6 characters long.

LIBOURSE:

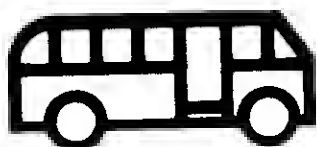

Players in the Libourse trade in the currencies of the Top Board Game, 1983 AG. You may join the game at any time by submitting the $3 game fee together with your request for assignment and a name for your country (only Top Board players may use the name of their position in the Diplomacy game).

Your country will have characteristics in the following categories: population, treasury, agriculture, military, industry, mineral resources, communications, transportation and utilities. You will receive approximately $7,000 in currency of the surviving Diplomacy positions in the Top Board game. You must improve your country in all categories to do well. And you may attack one other Libourse country each turn. Random events may help or hinder your progress.

LIBOURSE PRESS:

GORKY DIARY: The valiant young men of LATVIA had all gone off to fight the villains of Luxemburg. After an initial defeat, they won a glorious battle -- but found the war already lost. It's true there were many who had called for an end to all war, which would have resulted in a static situation. This was overruled by the bankers, who thought they could buy their way out of trouble. BUT NO! The subversion was already complete, before enough corrective action could be taken. So, now the bankers are counting their losses (between 7 to 11 hundred thousand end game dollars). Still, many are relieved that GM & FF were only a penny, so the liquidation netted 50,000 for a healthy start at yet another country -- GORKY. The punishment of Luxemburg will have to wait for B2 IP; the long lead of CAYMAN must be cut or victory will be his! (His shadow value, if B3 AG were to stop now is 1.2 million dollars).

Tom Graessle (GORKY) has a COA: 417 Offenbach Pl., Sunnyvale, CA 94087.

RUSSIA>FRANCE: You know I agree with you about Candice being Princess of Rome -- I don't want her to learn Italian ways.

RUSSIA>GERMANY: Mi.

RUSSIA>ITALY: Only if you NMR a few more times! (Thanks on Candice).

RUSSIA>RUSSIA: Sigh.

GERMANY>FRANCE: Congratulations on your great comeback.

GERMANY>ITALY: Even though you've been a terrible "ally", I'll fight with you through thick and thin (you thick and me thin) to defeat Russia. My only request is to take his last center.

ROME>AUSTRIA: Well, it looks like you were about to go with my idea -- but I needed your commitment AMO communication in Spring. We'll see what happens now.

ROME>GERMANY: The more I think about it, the worse it looks to have sent Nth>Lon. You always wanted Italy to GIVE, GIVE, but never offered anything yourself -- except to Russia whose primary aim the whole game seems to have been to kill you. If you think allies are important, why did you NEVER do as they suggested? I'm glad I stopped Russia from getting HOL, even if I didn't get LON like I wanted.

ROME>TURKEY: Yes, Ethiopia is a rich, luxurious land of leisure & pleasure and no fighting. I don't blame you for following me down there -- in fact I welcome it!

ROME>RUSSIA: I don't really think Candice will be Princess of Rome, but it makes good press. Her picture's great!
